

The Ferrari 488 Spider takes the Autonis Design Award

Auto Motor und Sport readers elect the 488 Spider as the most beautiful convertible sports car in Germany

Stuttgart, 16 September 2016 - The Ferrari 488 Spider is the most beautiful convertible sports car in Germany, according to the result of the readership poll on design innovation held by the leading German motoring magazine, Auto Motor und Sport.

Readers selected their “Most Beautiful Cars 2016” from 115 new models releases in eight categories in the 16th edition of this annual award.

“For Ferrari to win an Autonis Design Award for the 488 Spider is a great honour,” said Flavio Manzoni, Senior Vice President, Ferrari Design, on receiving the prize at the award ceremony in Stuttgart. “It’s a significant result in such a high-level, competitive category, and further recognition of the efforts of everyone at the Ferrari Design centre.”

-END-

For further information and images please use the contact details below or alternatively visit the Media Website at: <http://media.ferrari.com/login/>

Ferrari Social Media Platforms:

www.facebook.com/ferrari

www.twitter.com/ferrari