President of Italy meets new Ferrari Roma

Rome, 15 November 2019 – Italian President Sergio Mattarella today welcomed Ferrari Chairman John Elkann and Deputy Chairman Piero Ferrari to his official residence at the Quirinal Palace, where they introduced him to the Maranello marque's latest coupé, the Ferrari Roma.

“It has been an honour showing the Ferrari Roma to President Mattarella,” declared John Elkann as he left the Quirinal Palace. “Its name encapsulates the very best of our nation: elegance, innovation and technological excellence. It is an absolute gem of styling and performance that will be admired on roads all over the world”.
